MAY 2025

Her children and grandchildren's homes are filled with many of her artworks. She was married for 26 years, so when her children all moved to the Houston area she moved to Katy, TX to be close to them. Marilyn was in choir in high school, so when she moved to Katy she joined the Second Baptist church choir and sang for 20 plus years. She enjoyed the Red Hat ladies and her dominos group later in life. She is a world traveler. She traveled to Canada and Europe. She has even been on The Orient Express. She not only is an artist, she also writes poems about her life. Whenever something was happening she would put pen to paper. She has poems about trips to the fabric store, hurricane coming, baby girl going to college and a cowboy without a horse and many more. That's how she handled stress.

Marilyn Schiflett was born on December 23, 1940, a Christmas baby to Ed and Mary Bullard, on a farm between Savoy and Ector, TX. She lived there with her grandparents and parents until she started school. The small family moved to Sherman, TX, where Marilyn became a big sister at 12 to Connie and met her high school sweetheart, John. They married seven months after her graduation. Marilyn moved to Austin while her husband was attending the University of Texas and brought home a baby girl on their one-year anniversary. While John worked for his father in the geophysical industry (oil and gas) they moved all over the state of Texas. She welcomed a son two years later and her last son seven years after that. Marilyn was a housewife and cooked three meals a day for her family. While pregnant with her last child, she learned to oil paint from an art teacher that lived across the street.
